FROM THE EAST

Brothers, Well, January is almost upon us and normally we would be looking forward, the holidays and the start of a new year for our lodge, but this is 2020 and not everything is going as planned. Our new Grand Master has put all of our lodges under the same lockdown that took away half of this past year. With any luck, this pause will only last a month or so and we can schedule our elections and continue our year. In the meantime, I remain the Master of a Lodge that can't meet. I know this isn't the way any of us wanted to have the past year go but until we can meet safely it only makes sense for the Grand Master to pause our year for the overall safety of all of our Brothers. As I said during the previous pause, please stay safe, wear a mask, stay socially distanced, wash your hands and we will see you after the Grand Master has lifted his edict and we can pick up our labors.

Worshipful Master

Fraternally, Steven Crosby

FROM THE WEST

Brothers, as we continue to suspend in-person activities, I found an interesting list of historical films related to Freemasonry. The title of the article is "33 Historical Films Every Freemason Should See." Published in 2016 by the Grand Lodge of Washington (State). While not directly describing historical Masonic events, it provides context during important times in Masonic lore. You can see the list at <https://freemason-wa.org/2016/07/20/33-historical-films-every-freemason-see/>. For those more inclined to books than movies, the Grand Lodge of Ohio put out a list of seven Masonic books, which includes the fascinating "Better Angels of our Nature" by Michael A. Halleran, telling the story of Freemasonry during the Civil War. The complete list is here: <https://www.freemason.com/7-masonic-books-read-winter/>

FROM THE SOUTH

Brothers, as 2020 comes to an end, I am thankful for the year we have had. In 2020, as a lodge, we were able to host the Most Worshipful Louis J. Castle, II, had a great St. Patrick's Day dinner, Thanksgiving dinner, Table Lodge, Friendship dinner, participated in the Boulder City Wine Walk and had a fun (unofficial) cigars and whiskey night. I look forward to an eventful and fun 2021! I would like to schedule a Pheasant Hunt for the Brothers in January/February, please let me know if you would be interested in participating; the cost is $160/person, hunt, guide, dogs, bird cleaning and tip included. Please enjoy the holidays with your family and friends! Let me know if you need anything, I am only a phone call away, 702-218-8404.

Junior Warden

Fraternally, Paul Chaffee
