FROM THE EAST

Brethren, our summer is rapidly coming to a close, and I trust you had a good one filled with family fun and life getting somewhat back to normal. As we head into fall, and our Lodge resumes labor, let us close out this year with a bang. For the September Stated Communication, we will have a “Step Up” night, where each Officer steps up to the next chair in line. I will be visiting the historic Cradle of Western Civilization in Turkey. For the coaches of our EA’s, let’s keep their advancement on track towards becoming full Master Masons. Looking forward to seeing everyone in Lodge.

Worshipful Master

Fraternally, Kyle D. Widner

FROM THE SOUTH

Brothers, I hope that this message finds you all healthy and enjoying your summer!

As the summer break begins to wind down, we begin to look forward to resuming our work in the fall. Your officers are hard at work preparing for our step-up night for the first meeting in September and we look forward to your support as we navigate through our respective positions. Going into the summer break we had some great excitement and momentum as we welcomed our newly initiated brothers to the Lodge and successfully entertained Most Worshipful Richard M Graver, Jr., Grand Master of Masons of Nevada and his Corps of Officers during their Official Visit.

As we now begin the process of resuming our work, we place much of our focus on assisting our new brothers navigate through their proficiencies and prepare them for their next steps and we appreciate the involvement of as many of the Brethren as possible.”

Junior Warden

Fraternally, Wil Chaffee
